[redacted] 50X1

7. (Internal Use Only - JSW) Met with Mr. Gulitch, Staff Director of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, delivering to him a copy of [redacted] Separation of Surplus Personnel. STAT Mr. Gulitch is an experienced lawyer having served on the Hill for over ten years and most recently as counsel to the Senate District of Columbia Committee. He seemed most interested in the Agency and asked a number of questions about our personnel laws and exemptions from general laws. Eventually I suggested to him that a luncheon and briefing at the Agency at which he might like to bring Don Kerlin might prove helpful. He indicated he would like to do this very much.

8. (Unclassified - JSW) Met briefly with Mr. John R. Buckley in the office of Representative Dante B. Fascell (D., Fla.) with regard to the letter of 22 February to the DCI requesting an interview for a [redacted] with the Director. I explained that we 50X1 did not feel it appropriate for the Director to meet with this individual. Mr. Buckley understood and in searching for some help welcomed the idea that he could refer [redacted] to the Director's representativ[redacted] 50X1 [redacted] I indicated I would furnish this information in a letter. 50X1 (See letter to Fascell dated 7 March 1961.)

9. (Unclassified - JSW) Talked with the late Representative W. F. Norrell's Administrative Assistant mentioning the previous correspondence concerning the suggestion for utilization of retired military personnel for intelligence purposes. I indicated I was there as a matter of courtesy to see if anything further was necessary. It was clearly indicated that as far as their winding up matters is concerned, they wish nothing further from us.
